Educational Policy and Assimilation of Peoples From Other Lands Is Stressed by Rev. A. E. Larke

The first public meeting in Coleman called by the newly-organized Citizens' League was attended by nearly 500 people, including many ladies. A. M. Morrison as chairman briefly explained why the league had been organized, to combat the revolutionary teaching of Communism against Canadian institutions, and to educate into citizenship those who had been misled. Above all it stood for the maintenance of law and order.

William Lees stated he was proud to belong to this movement to combat those on the corner. They did not want men to belong to the League who sat with a leg on each side of the fence and afraid to show where they stood. What was needed was co-operation for the good of the greatest number. There was no need for this country to adopt revolutionary methods, for our constitution provides for legislation along sane lines. To bring about reform a man must be a good and true citizen and work in a lawful manner.

Rev. J. W. Smith, speaking on "The Aims and Objects of the League," claimed it was out to fight the battles of the workers, for improving legislation by constitutional methods. No good could come of battles with class warfare as their basis, and there should be no division of opinion in fighting for people's rights. He gave the direct lie to the statement made by the strikers that the League is lined up with the K.K.K. Referring to the manifesto circulated by the Communist Party of Canada, in Blairmore, he read certain demands which were impossible of realization as no government or industry could meet them. The strikers held contra meetings in order to keep their followers away from other meetings where they might obtain some information which their leaders did not want them to hear.

Many people from other lands were among his friends, and he objected to the term "foreigner" or "reds." "Red" meant revolutionary Communist, but there were many men in the strikers' ranks who were not of that type, but who were being misled. The League should have been organized a year ago, and have assumed a greater share of responsibility in teaching these people the principles of citizenship.

Undoubtedly the industrial and social structure was wrong, when it permitted men to become immensely wealthy and left others in poverty, but to remedy this condition a solution could not be accomplished by acting wildly and breaking laws. The revolutionary system would bring greater difficulties than those we are now suffering from. He outlined proposals whereby the League can give very useful service to the workers in this district.

Rev. A. E. Larke spoke on the educational policy of the League. He stated that difficulties faced employers as well as employees, and they would gladly welcome improvements in the present system. But it could not be improved in this country by interpretation, for behind it lies a false interpretation of life. Karl Marx stated that if men's material wants were satisfied, economic problems would disappear. But there was more to life than materialism. There was the development of character. The Communist believes in the overthrow of existing institutions, but true citizenship believes in evolution and not revolution.

The League had been organized to preserve the language and culture of the people, and to help them to assimilate into Canadian society.

PHONE 251 F, F. BARRINGHAM TAXI—Leave early as you like; spend a day at wonderful Waterton Lakes, round trip 160 miles, four passengers $3.50 each. Make up your parties and phone for appointments.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McBurney and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rippon represented Coleman Board of Trade at the annual get-together banquet of Southern Alberta boards at the Prince of Wales hotel, Waterton Park, on Wednesday evening. Waterton board acted as hosts for the occasion, and it proved a very enjoyable affair.

Bill Donaldson, one-time tailor in Coleman, now of Kimberley, with Art Shearer, formerly of Blairmore, came down to congratulate Editor Bartlett on his marriage and to collect the amusement tax which the latter states has been levied against him by the Alberta government. On the way back to Kimberley he called at The Journal office, and in a happy frame of mind passed on the news of his happy meeting with the Blairmore editor.

Preserve your homes, your schools and your churches, said the speaker, for they are the basis of a Christian Empire. We do not propose to make Canada a polyglot boarding house for people from foreign lands; we want them as citizens, who will take their part in the building up of our land. The speaker was given enthusiastic applause on his stirring and patriotic address.

The Rev. A. S. Partington moved a vote of thanks on behalf of the League to all the speakers, and to Upton's orchestra for their kindness in coming to the meeting.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Murphy Stages Counter Attraction to Citizens' Meeting Tues. Evening

Makes "Wisecracks" at Citizens' League and Says Bill Lees Saved Canada

Tuesday evening saw truckloads of men, women and children transported from Bellevue and Blairmore to stage a meeting outside the skating rink, as a counter attraction to the citizens' meeting in the opera house. The principal speaker was Harvey Murphy, organizer for the strikers, who played the Citizens' League for organizing in the Pass towns. Going over the list, he stated they thought they might be the cream of the Pass, but they weren't even good butter-milk. As for Bill Lees, he didn't know if he told the Journal what to say, or if the Journal told Bill what to say. But there was Bill, who had been fighting a terrible battle for two years, and had saved the day for the Canadian government by breaking the strike.

The Journal said his (Murphy's) power was gone, but he noticed that he still had sufficient power to attract a big crowd, and apparently he was a strong attraction for the ladies. Concerning the strike, they would stay solid with their demands, and would stand for no discrimination.

He referred to the manifesto distributed in Blairmore and Bellevue, over the name of the Communist Party of Canada, which urges the workers to build up their revolutionary organizations, for the overthrow of the capitalist system, the establishment of a workers' government and the building of Socialism in Canada. A number of new names were listed by Murphy for general denunciation, especially members of the Citizens' League committees. Many of the old arguments concerning the strike were reviewed, and concerning the League candidates who were members of Coleman school board, he said they would elect them again if they stood. W. Holly also spoke, and Sam Patterson, of the Blairmore negotiations committee.

The meeting passed off quietly, concluding about 10 p.m.

Carrier Pigeon Shot

A carrier pigeon was found shot near Midnapore. The band was marked C H S 1931, No 50. Apparently boys shooting with a 22 rifle had killed the pigeon, which was found by Vivian Gough, of Midnapore.

This pigeon was owned by W. Head of Coleman Homing Society, and had gone astray in a recent flight.

The Empress hotel has been re-decorated with a coat of paint, and a prominent sign erected to attract the attention of tourists coming from the west. Mr. McDonald, the genial proprietor, reported a steadily increasing number of tourists stopping over on their trips through the mountains.

Long Kam, of the Coleman Cafe, returned last week after a year's visit with his family in China. He enjoyed the trip, and on the return, by the "Empress of Asia," stops were made at Shanghai, Kobe, Japan and the Hawaiian Islands.

The swimming pool requires repairs to the intake pipe, and many of the young people have been looking at it and longing for the time when it will be filled. A few days work to needy men will put it in shape.

Crows Nest Pass District Boy Scouts Preparing for Summer Camp

R. Jones Appointed as Secretary in the Absence of A. L. Watkins

A meeting of the committee of Coleman Boy Scouts Association was held in the Journal office on June 21. Following were present: Rev. A. S. Partington, chairman, H. C. McBurney, O. E. S. Whiteside, Rev. Fr. E. H. Lehman, H. T. Halliwell, acting secretary.

Minutes of previous meeting were read and passed on motion of McBurney and Lehman.

The chairman reported a credit balance of $25 79 in the bank. Mr. McBurney reported having collected $16 00 for the annual camp. Other members of the committee stated their lists for collections for the camp were yet to be completed.

Mr. Reggie Jones was asked by telephone if he would act as secretary in the absence this summer of Mr. A. L. Watkins. His appointment was left over to be ratified at the next committee meeting.

Motion by Halliwell and Whiteside, that efforts be made to have the Governor-General review the Crows Nest Pass District Scouts on his visit to the west in September. Mr. Partington stated he would get in touch with the governor-general's secretary immediately, and that a report would be given at the next district meeting on what arrangements might be made.

The Imperial Economic Conference

The Imperial Economic Conference, shortly to be convened at Ottawa, is unquestionably one of the most important gatherings ever called in the history of the British Empire. In fact it may easily prove to be one of the most important in the economic history of the whole world, because, whatever decisions it may reach will affect not only the British Commonwealth of Nations but all nations.

There will be assembled together all the leading governing statesmen of the Empire, supported by the strongest possible groups of financial, economic, commercial and other experts that the Old Country and each of the Dominions can gather together. For months past these statesmen and experts, assisted by small armies of lesser experts and advisers, have been compiling and studying trials and comparative statistics, weighing the effect of this and that, problems as never before, into the productive capacities, primary and industrial, of their countries, the natural resources, the state of employment, the requirements of their respective populations, the probable and possible trend of future developments and the extent thereof, and the effect of existing policies and possible future policies upon all these matters which enter into national and Empire growth, prosperity and strength.

And the object of it all is to see, if possible, new policies acceptable to all parts of the Empire, and which will be of mutual advantage to all, and having to their objective the encouragement and development of a larger volume of inter-Empire trade. This means that the possibilities and the requirements of each part of the Empire must be ascertained, must be appreciated by all the other parts, and the whole dovetailed together to the advantage not only of each component part, but of the whole.

It becomes at once self-evident, therefore, that one of the major tasks confronting the Conference will be to find ways and means of removing existing barriers to the free exchange of commodities between one part of the Empire and other parts, to the mutual advantage of both, and without, in the process, working injury to any part. While the Old Country representatives, and the representatives of each of the Dominions must, of necessity, give particular heed to the interests of their respective nations, it is to be expected that the success of the Conference that this be done in no narrow, selfish spirit, but in such a way that while benefiting their own country they likewise confer benefits on the sister nations.

This does not mean that the spirit of approach to the intricate problems calling for solution should be one of making sacrifices; rather it should be in the direction of striving for mutual advantages. In fact the word "sacrifice" should be entirely absent from the Conference, while the term "mutual advantage" should be very much to the fore. In a word, the dominating ideal should not be that expressed in such slogans as "Britain First," "Canada First," "Australia First," but, on the contrary, it should be an adaptation of the motto of the Three Musketeers, "All for One, and One for All."

Along with the removal of existing barriers, a mutual understanding or agreement that no new barriers will be erected, there must naturally develop policies designed to make ever easier the flow of trade into and out of all parts of the Empire to all other parts. This may involve the ultimate creation of a new system or method of monetary exchange, even an Empire currency. It would seem to be essential that some system be developed whereby the currency of any one part of the Empire should always be on a par with the currency of all other parts; in a word, that the same monetary standard should apply at all times throughout the Empire, and that, for example, at no time should the Canadian dollar be at a discount with the British pound, or vice versa. The guarantee of such a standard would undoubtedly be of tremendous assistance in establishing and maintaining Inter-Empire trade at a maximum, removing, as it would, much of the uncertainty and loss which now prevails.

If the forthcoming Conference can achieve a measure of success along these and other lines having the same general object in view the beneficial effect upon all parts of the British Empire will be almost incalculable. Not only so, but no other trading nation could afford to ignore such a development. The breaking down of trade barriers within the Empire would quickly force the breaking down of trade barriers by all other nations. It would be the beginning of a reversal of the suicidal policy into which the world has drifted and which has resulted in an almost complete paralysis, or destruction, of international trade and commerce, ending in the present state of world depression, unemployment, suffering and hardship.

Canadians may well be proud if, from their national capital, there is evolved a new economic policy for their Empire and the world. That this should emerge from the Conference should be, and we believe is, the fervent desire and hope of the Canadian people irrespective of any minor political differences of adherence to special schools of economic or fiscal thought.

Silk-Cotton Tree Attraction For Tourists At Nassau

Among the many attractions for American tourists at Nassau, in the Bahamas Islands, is the famous silk-cotton tree, which rises seemingly like a pyramid, then, at the top, branches off in clumsy shoots. The trunk of the tree flares out curiously into ribbon-like formation. There are believed to be only three silk-cotton trees in existence.

Pains In Stomach and Bowels So Bad Would Have To Sit Down

Mrs. C. Landry, Moncton, N.B., writes:—"I can certainly recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for cramps or pains in the stomach and bowels."

"Last Summer I had such awful pains in my stomach, and lower part of my bowels, at times, I could hardly sit down. I took 'Dr. Fowler's' and was soon relieved."

"When my children were small I always kept a bottle in the house and it helped them wonderfully whenever any of them had bowel complaints."

Island Prison For Doukhobors

D'Arcy Island, Near Victoria, B.C. To Become Place Of Banishment D'Arcy Island, about 20 miles from Victoria in Haro Straits, will become the home of some 300 Doukhobor men, sentenced to serve three years each for mudist parading.

Announcement of the creation of the island prison settlement was made by Oscar Bass, deputy attorney-general, on receipt of announcement from Ottawa of the decision. The Dominion government will almost immediately commence erection of such additional buildings and other accommodations as may be required.

The Doukhobors will be provided with agricultural implements so that they will be able to raise food-stuffs for their own maintenance.

U. S. War Veterans Leave Nation's Capital After Defeat Of Bonus

Washington.—Discouraged war veterans who came to Washington in hope of receiving cash for their war service certificates straggled homeward as their leaders vainly strove to hold their ranks intact.

The United States senate's overwhelming defeat of the bonus payment measure, a vote of 62 to 15, took its toll of the ranks, and roads leading away from Washington were dotted with groups of veterans leaving the nation's capital behind them.

As the result of the vote was announced outside, boos from the vast throng of veterans mingled with cheers at a statement from one of their leaders that "we will stay here until the bonus is paid."

Hundreds of veterans—clad either in overalls or ragged clothing—sat in the senate galleries watching tensely every move as the debate dragged through the day and into the night.

Shortly before the roll call, the thousands of bedraggled former service men at the capital were reinforced by other thousands from the main concentration encampment at Anacostia. They confined their activities, however, to singing war songs and occasionally breaking out with shouts of "We want the bonus."

Farm Mortgages

Loan Companies In Alberta Will Not Foreclose Under Agreement

Edmonton, Alberta.—Mortgage companies will not foreclose on any farm mortgages for one year without approval of the Alberta Debt Adjustment Board, and no foreclosures will be made while interest payments are being maintained.

This assurance was given the Ponoka Constituency Association of the United Farmers of Alberta by Premier J. E. Browne in addressing the annual constituency convention. Premier Browne said the guarantee of the mortgage companies had been obtained.

Besides the promises not to foreclose, arrangements to make payments in grain were being reached.

Receives Heavy Sentence

Gaston B. Means Convicted On Swindling Charge

Washington.—Gaston B. Means was sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment for swindling Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean of $104,000 in an alleged plan to return the kidnapped Lindbergh baby.

Judge James M. Proctor in the District of Columbia Supreme Court sentenced the former Justice Department investigator to 10 years on the larceny of $100,000 ransom and five years for larceny of the $4,000 expense money. The latter sentence is to begin after the 10-year sentence has been fulfilled.

Imperial Conference At Ottawa Expected To Be Rather Brief

London, England.—The British Government and the governments of the Dominions share the belief that proceedings of the Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa must not be long drawn out, said J. H. Thomas, Secretary of State for the Dominions, in a statement on the conference in the House of Commons.

"No sensible preparatory work has been left undone on this side," the minister said, and if the other had acted likewise the conference would not fail in its task of securing greater and freer empire trade.

Hoover Re-Nominated

Carries Republican National Convention In First Ballot

Chicago.—President Herbert Hoover was re-nominated almost without opposition by the Republican National Convention.

In a first ballot walkaway endorsement which rallied to his standard all but a handful of states, Hoover received from the party a concave re-affirmation of the grant of leadership which voted him four years ago at Kansas City.

A long, noisy and colorful demonstration had greeted the presentation of his name to the convention, with his home state of California leading with trimmings.

British Immigration

Question Has Not Yet Come Up For Discussion At Inter-Provincial Conference

Edmonton, Alberta.—Commenting on Senator A. D. McRae's suggestion as reported from Winnipeg, Premier J. E. Browne says that he has not had a communication from any source in regard to the matter, and he presumes that if the Dominion government were proposing to put it on the programme for the imperial economic conference advice to the provincial governments would have been given accordingly.

If occasion arises, however, the Alberta Government will be prepared to express its views on such immigration, says Mr. Browne.

Bloodless Sea Fight

British Run Runner And U.S. Cutter In Engagement

Halifax.—Tales of an old-fashioned sea scrap, in which the crews of a British run-rummer and a United States cutter battered each other with potatoes, turnips, paint pots and molasses jugs about 70 miles off New York, were told here after the motorships "Ganef" and "Mary F. Rutherford" limped into harbour.

Masters of both vessels claimed they had been rammed by the cutter "Daphne," the "Mary F. Rutherford" on Friday, and the "Ganef" on Sunday.

monetary and financial questions including the whole question of currency and migration, would all be taken up by the conference, said the minister.

"The United Kingdom Government," he declared, "will advocate the establishment of machinery representing the dominions that will keep them in daily contact."

Reconciliation of the divergent interests of the different sections of the empire was a great and difficult task, but a worthy one, which the great mass of people were hoping would be accomplished, Mr. Tindall said. "If we can help each other," he added, "what an example that will be to the world."

Kiwanis International

Delegates From All Parts Of Canada Attending Convention At Detroit

Detroit.—Canadians from all parts of the Dominion arriving here for the 16th annual convention of Kiwanis International are prepared for four days of problems pertaining to unemployment aid, urban-rural relations, child welfare, adult education, and civic betterment.

Kiwanis was founded in Detroit on January 21, 1915, and the thousands of Kiwanians from all parts of Canada and the U.S. crowding into the city consider the occasion a pilgrimage back to the birthplace of the service organization. "We are justified in our faith in the future of Kiwanis," declared William O. Harris, of Los Angeles, International president, in his annual message. "We can be proud of our past accomplishments, and our present opportunity lies in the willingness to serve in the social and economic problems that face today."

The Canadian delegations are in charge of three district governors: Charles A. Fowler, of Halifax, N.S.; Ontario-Quebec-Maritime district; Dr. James P. Whyte of Swift Current, Saskatchewan; Western Canada district; and Clinton S. Harley, of Seattle, Pacific Northwest district.

Two international officers, Andrew G. Gaul, of Hamilton, Ont., vice-president, and Dr. Charles C. Tatham, of Edmonton, trustee, will take leading parts in the convention.

Over 1,800 Kiwanis clubs across the U.S. and Canada will meet simultaneously. This united fellowship occasion will bring together over 89,000 men for an expression of gratitude for the community betterment and welfare work of Kiwanis during the past year.

All Kiwanis clubs in Canada are observing Canadian citizenship week, June 26 to July 2, with patriotic programs. The observance is being directed by the Kiwanis International committee on public affairs for Canada. H. Stanley Higman, of Ottawa, is chairman, and Nelson A. Harkness, Vancouver, and Richard W. Moore, Saskatoon, members of the committee.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Providing work or provisions for unemployed men, particularly those with dependants, is a problem with which Mayor Pattinson is grappling. Four months is a short time till winter will be here, to say nothing of present needs. The plan whereby Federal and Provincial governments and cities and towns each share a third of the cost of unemployment relief, is the only plan of which to take advantage, unless it should be cancelled. Failing that, it will depend on public charity, a very unsatisfactory plan.

Mayor Pattinson is interviewing Premier Brownlee this week to discuss Coleman's claims. Whatever the outcome, it is likely the tax rate will be increased in 1933 to provide the town's share of relief expense. The responsibility must be faced and immediate action will be necessary to deal with pressing cases. Taxation is the most equitable method to distribute the cost of caring for the deserving needy.

Many labor under an erroneous impression that coal mining companies receive the subvention on freight rates. Last week, strike leaders at Bellevue and Blairmore sent a letter to Premier Brownlee, stating that operators are "getting generous bonuses from the public treasury in the form of shipping subventions." The truth is that coal shipped from Alberta to Winnipeg for industrial use (not railway coal) is aided to compete against coal from the United States, by a subsidy of $1.20 per ton. This is paid to the railways by the Federal government. The reduction is passed on to the consumer, who buys his coal for $1.20 less per ton.

It is true that mining companies benefit by increased tonnage, but so also does the miner by increased work, for the greatest benefit accrues in that it helps to increase employment for mine-workers, railway hands and others dependent on the marketing of Canadian coal.

The Citizens' League in Blairmore has been accused with attempting to break the strike. As the League was not organized in Coleman till two weeks after the miners had returned to work, the charge cannot be made here that the League attempted to interfere in a labor dispute. As far as this town is concerned, it was organized to combat Communist influence in civic government, and is welcomed for this purpose. Its usefulness would disappear were it to interfere in straight labor disputes between employers and employees.

Blairmore and Bellevue are unfortunately experiencing a strike of longer duration than Coleman, but the only basis on which it can be settled is by the same method as in Coleman. A majority of the men must decide. The strike here was settled by former union leaders asserting themselves against "Red" leaders and their affiliations. Blairmore and Bellevue men who are opposed to Unity League or Red International domination must take up the cudgels if they wish to rid themselves of the men who at present control or intimidate the majority.

Murphy's witticisms amuse; they keep the crowd in good humor. The laughs he raises cannot but be tinged with sadness. He tells his supporters they are looking better whilst on strike relief than when working. From a laugh thought turns to cupboards almost bare. Sympathy will be felt for the victims of circumstances whom this strike deprives from earning wages. Yet as the rain falls alike on the just and unjust, so do the effects of a strike affect all who come under its ban. Labor as a rule does not want a third party to intervene, and he who is tempted to do so is liable to receive the same treatment as the well-meaning friend who butts into a family dispute.

Dave Elton frankly told Coleman people they sang "O Canada" as if it were a funeral dirge. It is a martial air, worthy of this young nation within the Empire. We should sing it with pride instead of apologetically. The words carry inspiration. Others may scoff at the singing of this and the national anthem; may even leave a hall or be brutally rude in remaining seated while being sung. In so doing the greatest injury is in branding themselves unworthy to hold an office which demands allegiance to Canada's constitution. A man who takes an oath of office and breaks it should resign if he cannot comply with its provisions. Dominion, provincial or local municipal administration demand men in whom the first essential for good government is loyalty. Right-thinking citizens will demand this.

An Honest Man

A preacher at the close of his sermon said: "Let all in the house who are paying their debts stand up."

Presently every man, woman and child rose to their feet except one. The preacher seated them and said: "Now let every man not paying his debts stand up." The exception got to his feet.

"How is it, my friend?" the preacher asked, "that you are the only one not able to meet his obligations?"

"I run a newspaper," he answered, "and the brethren here who stood up are my subscribers, and—"

A New Idea

The recently organized Citizens' League in the Crows Nest Pass is out to combat the forces of Communism. The idea of the Citizens' Committee suggests other possibilities. Why not for instance, organize similar committees to combat grafting Senators, defaulting and dishonest stock brokers, paid protectors of the underworld, bootleggers, gold-brick salesmen and every other social nuisance who crosses our path?—Drumheller Mail.

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

The National Government has contracted with a group of former military aviators to develop a Chinese air force.

Anella Earhart received the Order of Leopold from King Albert of the Belgians in recognition of her solo flight across the Atlantic.

On her first trip through the Strait of Bella Coola this season, the Canadian Pacific flagship "Empress of Britain" again broke the record for Atlantic crossing.

Col. Herbert Swinford, veteran of the Red River Rebellion in 1870, and the North West Rebellion 15 years later died in Winnipeg at the age of 83.

Prof. J. W. Gregory, Scottish geologist, and head of a scientific expedition studying earth movements in the Andes, was drowned recently, a brief wireless report said.

The total value of output of the British Columbia Fisheries in 1931 was $11,109,822, compared with $23,103,302 in the preceding year, according to a report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

The fruit bill of the United Kingdom went up by nearly £32,000 last year, according to a report issued by the empire marketing board, with oranges for the first time in history proving the popular leader. Apples, millions of which came from Canada, were second.

Nearly 7,000 persons were killed and more than 20,000 injured in road accidents in England within the last twelve months, according to parliamentary returns. In London Metropolitan Police District alone, 1,326 persons were killed and more than 5,000 injured.

British Columbian lumbermen will send a trade delegation to China to foster trade with that country if a suggestion put forward by Hon. Nelson Lougheed, Minister of Lands, to the executive of the British Columbia Lumber Manufacturers' Association is adopted.

Vegetarians Healthy But Slow In Generating Body Heat

Experiment running over two years has been concluded at Kansas City where a professor has been observing 70 vegetarians and comparing them with meat eaters. He finds that the vegetarians do not generate body heat and energy as quickly as meat eaters, placing the difference at 10 per cent. The vegetarians, he said, do not appear to be more active or intelligent than any others, but are they more apt to become sick. Apart from generation of heat he could see little difference in the two plans of diet.

Makes It Possible To Evaporate Platinum Like Water

Platinum is caused to evaporate like water by a discovery announced from the California Institute of Technology. This precious vapor, probably the world's highest-priced mist, condenses into unimaginably thin film upon a wide variety of materials. It coats these virtually permanently. Smoother than dew it will cover fibres, converting them into pliant, silmy threads that seem made of pure platinum.

New South Wales Bandits Out After Big Booty

These are days of mysterious accidents, peculiar robberies and dastardly crimes of all descriptions. But one could not help but smile at the news despatched from Sydney, N.S.W. There bandits stole a brick wall 30 feet long and six feet high. Others took 30 locomotives all exceeding the frames, while still others carried off part of a church. This story is not "whatabout" in the United States where high-pressure thieves will break a moving-up van up to a home or an apartment and if nobody stops them, take the entire furnishings in one trip.

Keeping one's possessions is not as easy as it used to be, not even as easy as in the days when might meant right.

Leadership Of Prince

Heir To British Throne Is More Than Theorist

Because of his commanding position as heir to the British Throne and on account of his personal popularity, the Prince of Wales has an unusual opportunity for public service of a practical nature, and of this opportunity he is taking full advantage. He is more than a theorist, and whether his audience be composed of business men, industrialists or farmers, he speaks to them in their own language. They realize that he has made himself familiar with their problems. Leadership is the great need of the day, and this his Royal Highness is providing in an energetic and practical manner.

A BOON TO STOUT WOMEN—THE ADJUSTABLE SLIP

Its wrap-over front makes it shadow proof.

There isn't anything more essential for slender appearance than a well-fitting costume slip.

Today's mode reduces the breadth of the figure and does it gracefully.

There is a narrow waist, and a hand-size band of the front. It is brought around the back and tied in a bow, adjusting the slip to suit its wearer.

There is also a great deal of freedom for the blouse, and it still retains the straightline of the slip.

And to make it! You'll be amazed at its simplicity. Cut it out and bound the edges to be bound after the sides and shoulder seams are closed.

Style N. 522 is designed for sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50 inches bust. Style N. 523 requires 4½ yards of 38-inch material.

Price of pattern 25 cents in stamps or coin (coin is preferred). Wrap coat carefully.

Contract Bridge

By Hamlin B Hatch, Cavendish Club, Toronto

In my last article, I discussed the Official System of Contract Bridge, from the standpoint of the fundamental differences between it and the Approach-Forcing System.

Today's article has to do with the so-called One-Over-One variation of both these systems. The One-Over-One has been developed by Geo. Reith of the Knickerbocker Whist Club, New York. Many of the members of the club have assisted in bringing this system to its present state of excellence.

The Four Horsemen of Bridge, i.e. Hal Sims, David Burnstine, Willard Karn, and Oswald Jacoby use this system and have won many national and sectional championships.

Whether their winning has been due to the One-Over-One or to the fact that all four of these men are master players, is not certain. However, it is probable that the system has helped them materially in their successes.

The salient features of the One-Over-One are as follows:

1. The Opening Bid of One has practically the same minimum requirements as The Approach-Forcing System, with the exception of strong distributional hands, i.e. two aces.

The weak no trump response is used to show a balanced one to two bid hand. All no trump bids other than jump no trump and original no trump are used to definitely measure your quick trick strength and in almost every case the no trump bid shows a minimum holding. However, in the One-Over-One, many users of the system make an opening bid of one no trump on a strong hand. If one no trump is bid and partner responds with two no trump the original bidder guarantees extra value to the contract.

2. Provided there is no intervening bid and the partner of the opening bidder responds with a bid of one, other than one no trump, this response is definitely forcing and demands that the original bidder keeps the bidding open for at least one more round.

The difference between the Approach-Forcing and the One-Over-One is, that any bid which is forcing in the Approach-Forcing System requires that the bidding be kept open until a game contract is arrived at while the One-Over-One forces the bidding to open for at least one more round.

Example: If the opening bidder bids one diamond and second hand passes, then if the opening bidder's partner bids one heart, the original bidder must bid again.

The advantages claimed for this system by its advocates is, that the partners inform each other of their respective holdings at low bids, and also that this bidding conceals from the opponents both the strength and weakness of the bidding hand.

The horsemen say that it always gives the chance that the opponents will make a defensive bid and find themselves caught between the upper and neither millstones with the result that they suffer a substantial penalty.

2. The opening bid of two in a suit is based on holding a maximum and not on honor tricks. In other words a two bid is made on hands which definitely assure the partnership of game even if the partners of the two bidder has a complete "bust."

The type of hands which lend themselves to this bid are usually powerful two suiters or a very powerful one suiter.

Example: Spades A Q J X X, Hearts A K X X X, Diamonds—None, Clubs X.

In this hand even with a six spot high in partners hand, game is assured as the original bidder has only three losing tricks.

3. The opening bid of three in a suit is a definite slam signal. It is a stronger bid than the two bid and demands that the partner of the three bidder bid a suit of which he has the ace.

If he has no ace, he makes the conventional response of three no trump.

Example: Spades A K Q J X X, Hearts K Q, Diamonds X, Clubs A K

Q X. If after a three spade bid the response is four diamonds slam is definitely assured in spades. This is the only situation in any of the systems so far discussed where ace showing is countenanced.

4. In all other situations except those outlined above, the One-Over-One has no variations of consequence from the Approach-Forcing System. The weak no trump response is used to show a balanced one to two bid hand. All no trump bids other than jump no trump and original no trump are used to definitely measure your quick trick strength and in almost every case the no trump bid shows a minimum holding. However, in the One-Over-One, many users of the system make an opening bid of one no trump on a strong hand. If one no trump is bid and partner responds with two no trump the original bidder guarantees extra value to the contract.

5. In other words the contract is either one no trump or three no trump.

There is no adverse bid, provided that the opening bid is one hand and the responder bids two hands.

MARGARET PEDLER

"The Splendour of the Hermit of Far End." Hodder & Stoughton, Ltd., London.

"Then, to please me—for nothing else in the world, if you like, but because I ask it—will you let things stay as they are for a few weeks longer? Just that little while, Nick? We're going to London next week. That'll make a break—bring us all back to a calmer, more everyday outlook on things. Will you wait? Sir Adrian may never strike Claire again. And it wouldn't be fair—just now, at a time when she is feeling horribly bitter and humiliated from that insult—to ask her to go away with you. Give her a fair chance to decide a big question like that when things are at their normal level—not when they are worse than usual. To ask her now would be to take advantage of the feeling she must have, just at this moment, that her life is unbearable. It wouldn't be playing the game."

He made no answer, and Jean waited with increasing trepidation. She was sure now that she could hear footsteps. Someone had mounted the stairs and was coming along the corridor towards her room.

"Nick!" The low, agitated whisper burst from her as she stopped outside the door. "Promise me!"

CANAPAR

Do each vegetable up in its own bag of Canapar Cookery Parchment. There won't be any odors, not even from cauliflower! All the flavor and taste will be retained. And you use only one burner turned low for cooking. The flavor will not mix!

Do the same with liquid or steamed fish. You'll be delighted with the results. No fishy odor in the kitchen. No sauerkraut or kettle to clean up.

When roasting meat, line your pan with Canapar. Fast, juicy joints won't stick, and there's no scraping or washing up the pan afterwards.

You can use Canapar repeatedly by simply rinsing it off and hanging up to dry. It doesn't absorb odors. Makes perfect soups, stews, Sikkies, salads, and doesn't spread lime. Made by the makers of the famous PARASAN Heavy Waxed Paper in the Green Box.

that we weren't meant to run away from things—hard things. If a man and a woman marry, they must accept their responsibilities—not evade them."

So absorbed was she in her train of thought that she never realized how directly this speech must strike at Blaise himself. His face changed slightly.

"You're right, of course," he said abruptly. "You—generally are. And if all women were like you, it would be easy enough."

His eyes dwelt with curious intentness on the pure outline of her face, on the parted, tenderly curved lips, and the golden eyes with their momentary touch of the idealist and the dreamer.

It seemed as if the quiet intensity of his regard drew her, for slowly she turned her head and met his gaze, flushing suddenly and faltering under it. The consciousness of him, of his nearness, swept her from head to foot, and it seemed to her as though now, in this moment, they were in closer touch, nearer understanding, than they had ever been.

She stood very still and quiet when he had gone, realizing in every quivering nerve of her that whatever the future might bring—even though Blaise might choose to shut himself away from her again as in the past and the dividing wall between them rise as high as heaven—she knew now, without a shadow of doubt or questioning, that he loved her.

In the burning utterance of a single word, in the pressure of passionate, renouncing lips, the assurance had been given, and nothing could ever take it away again.

She spread her hands, palms upward, and looked at them curiously.

CHAPTER XXIV.

An Unexpected Meeting

"Have you been very bored, Nick?"

The week in London had nearly run its course, and Lady Anne's eyes begged charitably for a negative. Nick accepted it with a smile.

"Never bored with you, ma'am; you know that," he said. "And hotel life is always more or less amusing. One comes across such queer types. There's one here this evening has been intriguing me enormously. At a little table by herself—do you see her? A tall, rather gorgeous-looking being—kind of cross between the Queen of Sheba and Lucretia Borgia."

Lady Anne threw a veiled glance in the direction indicated.

"Yes, she's very handsome woman, obviously not English." Her eyes travelled onwards towards the door. "With Blaise and Jean would hurry up," she added impatiently.

"They're taking an unconscionable time to dress."

The two latter had come in late from a sight-seeing expedition undertaken on Jean's behalf, and had only returned to the hotel just as Lady Anne and Nick were preparing to make their way in to dinner.

"For such a deliberate matchmaker, you're a lot too impatient, madonna," commented Nick teasingly. "That they should have stayed out together until the very last moment ought to have pleased you immensely."

Lady Anne made a small grimace.

Trying Out New Plan

Celery To Be Cultivated In Canada For Bermuda Growers

A plan to cultivate celery in Canada between June and October, transplant it in Bermuda, and harvest it for export to Canada in February, has been made known by W. R. Evans, marketing adviser to the Bermuda Department of Agriculture. It is understood that an expert is coming to Montreal to plant the first seeds.

The scheme would advance the opening of celery shipment from Bermuda to Canada by two or three months.

It seemed an eternity before he answered.

"Very well. I promise. You've won for the moment—Saint Jean!"

He smiled at her, rather sadly. Before she could reply, Blaise's voice sounded outside the door, asking if he might come in, and with a feeling of intense relief that the battle was won for the moment, Jean gave the required permission. As his brother entered the room, Nick quitted it, brushing past him abruptly.

Tormarin's eyes questioned Jean's. "We have been discussing Sir Adrian," she explained, as the door closed behind Nick. "And—Claire."

He nodded comprehendingly.

"Poor old Nick!" he said. "It's dunned rough on him. Latimer ought to be carefully and quietly chloroformed out of the way. He's as much a menace to society as a mad dog." Jean sighed.

"I'm afraid they're very unhappy—Nick and Claire."

"Wonder Claire doesn't chuck her husband," said Blaise. "And take whatever of happiness she can get out of the world."

Jean shook her head.

"You know you don't mean that. You don't really believe in snatching happiness at all costs."

"I'd let precious little stand in the way. If I were Nick I think I should do it."

"But being you?"

Jean did not know what unaccountable impulse induced her to give a personal and individual twist to what had been developing almost into an academic discussion. Perhaps it was the familiar, unsatisfied longing to hear Blaise himself define the thing which kept them apart even though, since Lady Anne's disclosure, she could guess on too well what it was. Or perhaps it was the faint, tormenting hope that one day his determination would weaken and his love sweep away all barriers.

He looked at her contemplatively.

"Sometimes the past makes claims upon a man—which forbids him to snatch at happiness. I don't believe in any man's shirking his just punishment for the evil he has done. What he has brought on himself, that he must bear. But Nick and Claire have had no part in bringing about their own tragedy. They are just the sport of chance—an ill-fated. They are morally free to take their happiness in a way in which I shall never be free to take mine, as long as I live." He regarded her steadily. "There are certain things for which I have proved myself unfit—with which it is evident I am not to be trusted. And one of those is the safeguarding of any woman's happiness."

Jean felt her throat contract. It would always be the same, then! The long tentacles of the past would reach out eternally into the future. The woman who had been his wife—the woman who had destroyed herself, and, in so doing, hammed a milestone of remorse about his neck—would stand forever at the gateway of the garden of happiness, her dead lips silently denying him—and, with him, the woman who loved him—the right to enter.

With an effort Jean answered that part of his speech which had referred only to Claire and Nick.

"There are other ways, though, in which they have no moral right. I grant that Claire was persuaded, almost driven into marrying Sir Adrian by her parents, but, after all, we each have our individual free will. She could have refused to obey them. Or, if she felt there were reasons why she must marry him—the material advantage to her parents, and so on, why, she ought to have reckoned the cost. I don't mean to be hard, Blaise—"

"She broke off wistfully.

"You—hard!" He laughed a little, as though amused.

"Only—only one must try to be fair all round—to look at things straight."

She leaned her chin on her palm and her eyes grew thoughtful.

"I don't know, but it seems to me that we weren't meant to run away from things—hard things. If a man and a woman marry, they must accept their responsibilities—not evade them."

"You're right, of course," he said abruptly. "You—generally are. And if all women were like you, it would be easy enough."

His eyes dwelt with curious intentness on the pure outline of her face, on the parted, tenderly curved lips, and the golden eyes with their momentary touch of the idealist and the dreamer.

It seemed as if the quiet intensity of his regard drew her, for slowly she turned her head and met his gaze, flushing suddenly and faltering under it. The consciousness of him, of his nearness, swept her from head to foot, and it seemed to her as though now, in this moment, they were in closer touch, nearer understanding, than they had ever been.

She stood very still and quiet when he had gone, realizing in every quivering nerve of her that whatever the future might bring—even though Blaise might choose to shut himself away from her again as in the past and the dividing wall between them rise as high as heaven—she knew now, without a shadow of doubt or questioning, that he loved her.

Painting Eiffel Tower

Engineers Think Structure May Become Menace In Twenty Years

The Eiffel Tower is forty-five tons heavier than it was last year. That is the amount of paint that forty-five painters are applying to the giant steel skeleton, still the third highest structure in the world. Only the Empire State and Chrysler Buildings in New York are taller.

Paris engineers went over the tower on an annual inspection and found it in good shape. Several engineers say that it can stand for another century before it will have been worn out by the elements, but most engineers agree that it may become a menace in twenty years.

The tower is being painted yellow and brown, which all Parisians agree is not pretty. Engineers say that paint of those two colors will increase the life of the tower. One American firm offered to paint the tower with aluminum paint just for the publicity, but this was opposed.

Wise and experienced mothers know when their children are troubled with worms and lose no time in applying Miller's Worm Powders, a most effective vermifuge. It is also used to clear the system and restore the body to healthy conditions without which there can be no comfort for the child, or hope of robust growth. It is a most trustworthy worm exterminator.

Honor the Dead

The graves of Redcoats killed in the battles of Concord and Lexington 175 years ago are not forgotten. Annual delegations of the British Naval and Military Veterans' Association of Massachusetts make a pilgrimage here to place wreaths on them.

Little Helps For This Week

"Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."—Matthew xi. 28.

Come, said Jesus' sacred voice, Come and make my path your choice; I will guide you to your home, Wary pilgrim, hither come.

Sinner, come for I am found Bald that you may for ever wound, Rest eternal, sacred sure.

Anna Letitia Barbauld.

Christ's invitation to the weary and heavy laden is a call to begin life over again upon a new principle. "Watch My way of doing things," He says; "follow me, take life as I take it; be meek and lowly, and you will find rest."—Henry Drummond.

Relieve Asthma At Little Expense. Thousands of dollars have been vainly spent upon remedies which, if ever used, will not be relieved. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, despite its assurance of benefit, costs so little that it is within reach of all. It is removed from the mass of doubtful and experimental preparations. Your dealer can supply you.

Buckwheat Destroys Weeds

Among the many uses of buckwheat as a field crop none is more important than its value as a weed destroyer, states crop specialists of the Dominion Experimental Farm. Its value in this connection arises from its quick germination and rapid growth. The fact that two crops of buckwheat can be raised during one year usually makes it particularly effective in the eradication of even such difficult weed problems as those presented by the Sow Thistle and Quack Grass.

Citizens' League Committee Appoint District Executive

A meeting of the committees of the Citizens' Leagues in Coleman, Blairmore and Bellevue was held at the latter town on Monday evening, to appoint a district executive.

Rev. A. S. Partington was appointed chairman, and Mr Corbett of Blairmore secretary. Mr. Costick of Bellevue acted as secretary of the meeting. It was decided that each branch appoint two members to the district committee, to be elected by their locals.

In connection with a Dominion Day celebration under the auspices of the Citizens' League, Coleman delegates announced that they would hold a sports day, and asked Blairmore and Bellevue to join with them. It was proposed that in future the celebrations of national holidays be alternated between Blairmore and Coleman, with Bellevue retaining its regular celebration on Labor Day, and that each town cooperate to make these celebrations as successful as possible.

Resolutions concerning various other matters were discussed, to be brought up for action at a later meeting.

Rev. A. E. Larke reported for Coleman branch that 635 names had been enrolled. In referring to the observance of national holidays, it was the general opinion that they would provide opportunities for promoting national sentiment, and co-operation among the people of the Pass towns, in fostering a more friendly spirit.

Officers of Bellevue Citizens' League are Chas Emmerson, president; C. Ray, secretary; J. A. Barbour, H. Barliss, Mr. Cranston, W. Goodwin, W. Kerr, committee.

Mrs. J. W. Fraser, mother of Mrs Frank H. Graham, died on Sunday evening at her home in Edmonton. Mrs. Graham had been staying with her for some weeks, and is still in the city.
